

WORLD VIEW LIST

- Directions: 1. On the right, rank each of the values listed below.
 2. On the left, indicate your 5 Most and Least important values.

Most	Least		Very Important	Somewhat	Less Important
___	___	Community	___	___	___
___	___	Compassion	___	___	___
___	___	Cooperation	___	___	___
___	___	Courage	___	___	___
___	___	Discipline	___	___	___
___	___	Doing the right thing	___	___	___
___	___	Duty	___	___	___
___	___	Fulfillment in life	___	___	___
___	___	Fairness	___	___	___
___	___	Freedom	___	___	___
___	___	Honesty	___	___	___
___	___	Honor	___	___	___
___	___	Integrity	___	___	___
___	___	Justice	___	___	___
___	___	Loyalty	___	___	___
___	___	Mercy	___	___	___
___	___	Obedience	___	___	___
___	___	Open communication	___	___	___
___	___	Opportunity	___	___	___
___	___	Prosperity	___	___	___
___	___	Self-reliance	___	___	___
___	___	Respect	___	___	___
___	___	Responsibility	___	___	___
___	___	Service	___	___	___
___	___	Trust	___	___	___

- After reading this chapter, to what extent do your own values affect your impartiality?

- To what extent is the need to provide empowerment and recognition part of the Nurturing Parent metaphor?

- To what extent was your decision to enter into the mediation profession out of your belief in the Nurturing Parent metaphor?

- Regardless of which metaphor you adhere to, to what extent do you unconsciously attempt to impose your values onto the parties?

- Conversely, to what extent do the parties attempt to impose their values on you and/or the other parties?

- When either is the case, whose side are you on?